Mastering Treasury Office Operations: A Practical Guide for the Back Office Professional (Market Editions (Financial Times/Prentice Hall).) Denis Nolan, Gordon Amos

The work carried out by treasury operations and settlements has evolved beyond almost all recognition over recent years. It has developed into a critical administrative area where the processing of all financial market and related transactions takes place. In the past, much of the knowledge and skills needed by back-office professionals could be learnt on the job. Today, the growing use of technology and new theoretical ideas have increased the need for the adoption of educational tools and techniques.
