História do café (Portuguese Edition) Ana Luiza Martins

Este delicioso livro narra a trajetória de aventura e ousadia da mais saborosa e conhecida bebida negra em todo o mundo: o café. Desde sua descoberta, a Coffea arabica traçou novas rotas comerciais, criou espaços de sociabilidades até então inexistentes, estimulou movimentos revolucionários, inspirou a literatura e a música, desafiou monopólios consagrados e tornou-se o elixir do mundo moderno, consolidando as cafeterias como referência de convívio, debate e lazer. Com charme, elegância e bom humor, a historiadora Ana Luiza Martins conta a trajetória do café, das origens como planta exótica no Oriente à transformação em produto de consumo internacional. A autora analisa também como o café no Brasil transformou-se na semente que veio para ficar e marcar a nossa história. Mais do que uma atitude simpática de bom anfitrião, oferecer um café é proporcionar uma das mais prestigiosas formas de convívio social que nos é dado a conhecer. Um simples gole dessa bebida torna você, leitor, parte de uma imensa cadeia de produção, embalada em muita aventura e ousadia. Venha tomar uma xícara com a gente.?
