This handbook provides step-by-step guidance on the procedures involved in road haulage, from applying for and renewing "O" licences to dealing with customs procedures, sales of vehicles, retention of vehicle registration numbers, and the practicalities of carrying abnormal loads. It is designed to help the haulage operator organize and administer his business in an efficient way which complies with the law in relation to the system of records and procedures that should be maintained and followed. Copies of all the relevant official forms are included, with detailed guidance on: where they should be obtained from; how and by whom they should be completed; and time limits for returning them to the appropriate agency.
