Can I Get a Do Over?: Unforgettable Stories of Second Chances and Life Makeovers Rick Domeier

Navigating career changes, switching industries, ending relationships, revisiting a way of life—these are some of the life-altering 'do overs' we face, whether by choice or by circumstance. In these uncertain times, the opportunities for starting fresh are appearing more frequently . . . if only they are recognized and seized. In Can I Get a Do Over? multichannel retail giant QVC's senior host Rick Domeier takes an up-close look at the amazing people who were courageous enough to ask for a do over and overcome great odds and obstacles, literally reinventing whole aspects of their lives.

Through in-depth interviews with everyday people as well as celebrities such as Happy Days' Anson Williams, figure skater Peggy Fleming, and comedian Adam Holtz (a.k.a. The Great Holtzie), this lively read takes an entertaining and action-oriented approach to the process of reinventing one's life. Not another how-to book that offers steps and tips for change, this book lets its do-over stories encourage and teach by example.

Rick Domeier has spent the last sixteen years as a host on national television and has appeared on every major broadcast network. As a senior host on QVC, Rick has worked with countless celebrities and entrepreneurs, including Suze Orman, Tony Robbins, Joan Rivers and Rachael Ray. He is the recipient of QVC's Ace Award, QEmmy, and the Cornerstone Award, the Network's highest honor. He is married and has two sons.

Max Davis is the author of sixteen books and has been featured on The Today Show, USA Today, and The 700 Club.
