This is not your typical surfing book, its about how myself and my friends discovered the joys of surfing, around the North East coast of England. It is an honest and real account of a 25 year addiction with the sea, by an average surfer, a longboarder. It does include some swear words and the odd sexual reference but don't let that put you off. The journey takes in Bali, the Hawaiian islands, Ireland and many more locations. It will hopefully give you an insight into surfing life around Saltburn, the competitions, the wipeouts and the growing up.
