Tucked along the back roads of Missouri is a peaceful Amish community, home to four women who are struggling with their faith. Barbara has been widowed with four children to raise and no one to run the family business. Faith has a career among the world, but wants her daughter to be raised with her Amish family. Melinda wants to be a vet and an Amish, but she can't have both. Allison's upbringing as a tomboy hasn't prepared her to become a proper Amish wife. Will each woman meet a man who can help them along the path to contentment within their community and to trust in God?
