"Verses to be added to the end of Deuteronomy"

*Are you kidding, let it be, just write that we were born, we were here, and we drowned in the sea.
That's enough. Keep the final verses short, in your generosity, just hint that it's bad here, without love, in the desert, the old people grumbling, even dying all the way here, a long journey and contention.*

And the day-old baby of the homeland -- hatred -- the baby of the homeland, and its mother -- longing, and the baby of the homeland, swallowing oatmeal and milk, some more, dying and hunger.

*Write concisely about murder and blood, just hint at a people and a homeland, keep it short, in your generosity (let it be),
and remind the reader that we drowned in the sea.*
