Kismet—In silent lamentation, Laine awakens from her dream?in it she witnesses the tragic death of her husband, an Egyptian king. Ever since she found her aunt's antique dagger, she's had the same vision nearly every night. Laine's heart aches at just the thought of the man from her dreams. To make matters worse, the sheikh's attendant who frequents her library happens to look just like him! Could her feelings for him be love, or is it all an illusion? Bonus Story—Princess Australia, a romantic tale that begins with a prince's secret hotel stay.
